Dear Martin Luther King,

When I sit here and listen to the news about riots and out of control "protests", I wonder what you would do. From your "I have a dream" speech you said, "the glory of the lord will be revealed, and all flesh will see it together." I also believe we must look to a higher power to save us from this ongoing conflict. I know this is not what you wanted to happen after your speech. If you were here, you would know what to do. I thank you for freeing the slaves from slavery and I know this is not what you wanted as the aftermath. As we head into the holidays, it is sad to see that there are going to be multiple empty seats and a lot of tears. I believe everyone will see the light and some will join the holy Calvary. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for the freedom you gave to us in attempt to make us united under the power of God and be together as a nation.

Sincerely,
Logan Kuntz
